Transaction Description and Highlights

(Please note: this form and all attachments and inclusions must be submitted in PDF format. See specifications on page 3).

Provide any marketing materials or brochures you feel best represent the transaction. In addition to the marketing materials, please provide brief highlights of the investment not articulated in the marketing materials. We encourage you to use the written highlights to concisely explain why you think this transaction deserves to be recognized as investment deal of the year! The highlights should be tailored to identify the strengths of the transaction with respect to the Award Criteria on page 3 and could include considerations like:

- Property (portfolio) description including location(s), building area(s) and major tenants
- Major terms and conditions of the purchase and sale agreement, parties to the agreement, etc.
- Purchaser's investment thesis
- Creativity required to complete the transaction
- Purchaser's asset management plan
- Investment risks and approach to mitigation
- Obstacles and how they were overcome
- Unusual or innovative aspects of the deal structure
- Strategic benefits achieved by the purchaser including value creation and other measures of financial success such as projected profit and/or IRR
- Impact of the transaction on the investment market

Please note that how the applicant lists the submission information, including names and details on page 2, is how it will read in all marketing materials.

Also include and attach a brief separate typewritten Summary, using 50 words or less, which describes and captures the essence of the project in a manner that may be used in the REX Awards program or other marketing materials. Please clearly label this as the "Transaction Summary."
